

The Listener

Following The Albourne Way, I am resilient, always responding to questions, learning from my mistakes and enjoying critical feedback.

Questioner

The Listener will:

- Seek out the answers to their own and others questions.
- Think about a question, discuss it, share and show their answer.
- Repeat answers to questions when they are unsure by not opting out.

Perseverer

The Listener will:

- Persevere in their learning and practise, practise, practise.
- Show how resilient they are by overcoming disappointment.

Communicator

The Listener will:

- Agree, challenge or elaborate.
- Talk to each other and the adults about their learning.
- Discuss with a trusted adult when there are not in the green zone.

Feedback

The Listener will:

- Enjoy critical feedback and use this to improve a piece of work.
- Be specific when giving feedback to someone else.
- Always learn from their mistakes.

The children of Albourne understand, can describe and aspire to have, the attributes that make an excellent learner.
